- d. On December 20, 2007 responses to motions in limine shall be filed. No replies are permitted unless requested by the court.
- The attached juror questionnaire will be given to the venire members and copies of the responses will be made available to counsel at the beginning of voir dire. A list of additional questions to be asked by the Court is attached. Counsel shall submit an agreed upon set of any additional voir dire questions to be posed by the Court. Any voir dire questions on which counsel cannot agree may be submitted separately. Counsel will be allowed brief follow-up voir dire after the Court's questioning. Proposed voir dire questions must be submitted by December 13, 2007.
- f. Jury instructions 1.1 through 1.12, 2.1 through 2.2, 3.1 through 3.9, and 7.1 through 7.6 from the Manual of Model Criminal Jury Instructions for the Ninth Circuit (2007 Edition) will be given absent objection. Counsel shall submit an agreed upon set of case specific instructions, using the Ninth Circuit Manual where possible. Any instructions on which counsel cannot agree may be submitted separately. Each requested instruction shall be typed in full on a separate page with citations to the authority upon which it is based and a reference to the party submitting it. A second blind copy of each instruction shall also be submitted omitting the citation to authority and the reference to the submitting party.
- A proposed form of verdict omitting reference to the submitting party g. shall be filed by each party. Proposed instructions and verdict forms must be submitted by December 13, 2007.
- h. Jury Selection shall proceed as follows: The Jury Commissioner will summon 35 to 40 prospective jurors. The Courtroom Deputy will select their names at random and seat them in the courtroom in the order in which their names are called. Voir dire will be conducted of sufficient venire members so that twelve (plus a sufficient number for alternates) will remain after all peremptory challenges and an anticipated number of hardship dismissals and cause challenges have been made.

The court will then take cause challenges and discuss hardship claims (which were not previously granted) at side bar. The court will inform counsel which hardship claims and cause challenges will be granted, but will not announce those dismissals until the selection process is completed. Peremptory challenges will be made in writing and passed between counsel in accordance with Crim. L. R. 24-2 and 24-3. The court will strike at one time those with meritorious hardship claims, those excused for cause, and those challenged peremptorily, and then seat the first twelve people (plus alternates) remaining in numerical order. i.

Courtesy copies of all documents shall be provided for chambers at the time of filing.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: November 29, 2007
